

Wright Family Exercise

Each time the word Wright or right is read, pass the object to the right. Each time the word left is read, pass the object to the left.

Mrs. Wright eyed her grocery list carefully. "There won't be anything left of our budget after shopping" she said. Mr. Wright looked up from his paper and said: "That's all right my dear, if there isn't anything left, I'll be happy if the Wright family makes it through the month."

As Mr. Wright turned back to his paper he said, "Have you the right gift for Sue Wright's birthday? She's been pretty lonely since her daughter left home right after she married. Uncle Tom left her a lot of money, but she does not enjoy life right."

Son, Ed Wright, was studying in the corner of the left side of the fireplace. "I wish Sue Wright would ask me the right way to spend the money."

Mary Wright said, "she would not have much left if she did. Your weekly allowance is gone before you get it right in your hands."

"And I suppose you have all yours left Miss Mary," said Ed Wright.

"I don't have it all left but I have enough left to buy toys I like," Mary Wright said.

Just then the doorbell rang. Mary Wright ran to answer the door, and the postman left a special delivery letter for the Wright family. She took it to Father Wright and he opened it. Inside was a letter and four new ten dollar bills. Mr. Wright shouted, "It's from Aunt Wright saying she has left town and decided to go right to her daughter's house."

"Say, she's all right" shouted Eddie Wright.

"Bless her heart," said Mother Wright.

"How wonderful of her," said Mary Wright.

"It makes each of us right happy to think she wrote us before she left," declared Father Wright. "At least it's all right with the Wright family."
