

PORTLAND PUBLIC SCHOOLS Lincoln High School

1600 SW Salmon St
Portland, OR 97205
503-916-5200
Winter-Spring 2012

Lincoln High School, Portland Public Schools' first and oldest high school, is located in downtown Portland, within easy walking distance of Portland State University, museums, cultural events and exhibits.

One of the top 100 college-prep International Baccalaureate (IB) high schools in the United States, Lincoln boasts thriving International Studies and Spanish Immersion programs.

Lincoln students — who come from diverse educational and economic backgrounds — are actively involved in and think critically about the world in which they live. In addition, students participate in 6A athletics, a host of club sports and a variety of engaging and meaningful extracurricular activities and community service projects.

Program highlights

- ▶ Lincoln's International Studies Center focuses on foreign languages and international issues. Lincoln's location is perfect for learning about and experiencing the many international aspects of our community.
- ▶ Lincoln is an approved IB school able to prepare students for the IB Diploma.
- ▶ Special education services provide support for a wide range of students with special needs.
- ▶ Special support and sheltered instruction supports students with limited English proficiency.
- ▶ The Spanish Immersion program focuses on students developing fluency and using the Spanish language in interdisciplinary studies.
- ▶ Lincoln also offers language classes in Arabic, French, German and Mandarin Chinese.
- ▶ Students enjoy a wide array of electives including: Jazz, Anthropology, Environmental Studies, Reading the Media and Graphic Arts & Web Design.

School facts

2011-12 enrollment: 1,476

School mascot: Cardinal

School colors:

Cardinal red and white

"It's cool to be active, involved and intellectually engaged at Lincoln. Our students take full advantage of their opportunities, and the environment is charged with their interest in learning."

— Peyton Chapman,
Lincoln principal

Learn about Lincoln High School
Eighth-grade family night,
6 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9

Activities and athletics

Lincoln students participate in a variety of extracurricular activities — from successful athletic programs to engaging and inspiring activities and clubs.

- ▶ Lincoln High School competes at the Oregon 6A level. On the field, court, track, golf course and ski slopes and in the pool, the athletics program offers a wide array of opportunities for student-athletes of all interests.
- ▶ Students participate in a host of clubs. Some focus on community service, others education or the arts; all create deeper connections between Lincoln High School and its students.

Lincoln's school spirit, excellent academic opportunities and unique downtown location make it a great place to learn."

— Max Lehman,

Senior, member of Associated Student Body Cabinet

Community support

Lincoln benefits from engaged parents, alumni, neighbors and community partners. This year alone, the Lincoln Foundation paid for almost 5 additional teaching positions.

More information is available at the Lincoln website:

www.pps.net/schools/lincoln

Portland Public Schools is an equal opportunity educator and employer.