2010 High School Information Sessions

Eighth-graders, it's time to check out high school! PPS schools are hosting visits for eighth-grade students and their families this winter. You are invited to attend any of these open houses — you do not need to pre-register. Can't make it to an event? Call the school to schedule a tour.

• Some schools also offer “shadowing” days, when current high school students guide eighth-graders through a regular day.

• Most eighth-grade students are assigned to their neighborhood high school for ninth grade. If you want to attend a school other than your neighborhood school, you must apply during the School Choice lottery January 22-February 26.

*Students applying to schools and programs marked with a * are required to attend an information session.
