

Halliburton News

November 3, 2009–November 10, 2009

Thank you to families for all your hard work for the HARVEST CELEBRATION on Friday.

Also, Thank you for volunteering to attend the Columbia Slough trip. A great learning experience for all!

Conference sign ups have been sent out and are due as soon as possible. I will do my best to accommodate everyone.

Sarah Ferguson is a resident artist collaborating with all ACCESS classes to create clay sculpture. Thank you parents for helping with the glazing and firing process. Glazing will happen the early part of November.

Nov. 4th - Begin glazing the clay figures

8:30 - 9:30 – Clarke

Nov. 4th - Begin glazing the clay figures

10:30 - 11:30 – Halliburton

Nov. 4th, 5th and 6th – Final firing

The pieces will be fired twice and we will need help loading the kiln here at school. If you would like to help please contact ferguson_sc@msn.com.

We need a class Digital camera if by chance your family has an extra one.

If you have an OMSI Pass it would be great to make a copy for future trips.

New Scholastic orders have been sent out and old orders are in! You will have approximately 1 month each distribution to send in for ordering.

Upcoming dates to remember:

Nov. 6th No School

Nov. 11th No School

Homework 11/3–11/10

Writing

Pick five words from the spelling list that relate to your trip to the Columbia Slough. Use them in a paragraph relating to the study of macroinvertebrates or to the nature walk.

Spelling

Spelling Words are available each week in the newsletter/homework sheet. The support activities and definitions for Wordly Wise Level 3 will be available online at <http://www.accessalt.pps.k12.or.us/> under Ms. Clarke's page.

We are looking into the possibility to order a book for each child at their particular level. Until then we will continue with WW3 and I have introduced spelling patterns for students.
