

Halliburton News

November 17, 2009–November 23, 2009
(Short week due to conferences on Tues.)

We want to send a huge thanks to families for donating continuous healthy snacks! We are in need of disinfecting wipes and hand sanitizer.

We have a new artist in residence working with each class to create a mosaic of student artwork for the entire school to enjoy. Halliburton's class works with him today. Clarke's class is working from 2pm-3pm on Wednesday the 18th. Please feel free to come and give a hand.

New Scholastic orders are being collected until Nov. 30th.

Upcoming dates to remember:

Nov.23–24 Conferences

Nov.24–27 Fall Break No School

Dec. 4th No School

Dec. 15th Report Cards delivered

Dec. 16th Late Opening

Homework 11/17–11/23

Writing

Thanksgiving, to Native American cultures, is not a yearly event, it is a daily practice. Giving thanks is an important part of living in balance, maintaining the great circle of giving and receiving, one of the great circles of life that encompass all of Earth. Compare your life today with the life of Native American in the Pacific Northwest. Compare several of these categories in graphic organizer:

Occupations, daily routines, food, food sources, transportation, family life the role of women, the role of men, leisure and recreational activities.

Categories	Life Today	Life of Pacific Northwest Native American in the 1700's
transportation	Car, bus, plane, etc...	Canoe, horseback, walk etc...

Spelling

Spelling Words are available each week in the newsletter/homework sheet. The support activities and definitions for Wordly Wise Level 3 will be available online at <http://www.accessalt.pps.k12.or.us/> under Ms. Clarke's page.

We are looking into the possibility to order a book for each child at their particular level. Until then we will continue with WW3 and I have introduced spelling patterns for students.
