Winter Olympics 2010 Journal

For this assignment, you will write ten journal entries from the perspective of the Olympian you have created. Each journal entry should be a minimum of one paragraph long in length. For your final draft, a drawing should be included with each entry. Before you work on your final draft, rough drafts need to be written, edited, and revised. Here are the journal entry topics. Put your journal together in the following order:

- Cover: Draw your country's flag and color in the Olympic rings. Also, include in writing this title, "2010 Winter Olympics Journal by...(name of your athlete)." Put your name and due date in the lower right hand corner.
- Page #1: Draw your Olympic athlete (use colored pencils) and complete the "Athlete Biography."
- Entry #1: Reflect on your arrival to Vancouver BC and the Olympic Village (where you will live and eat).
- Entry #2: Reflect on the Opening Ceremony.
- Entry #3: Reflect on the differences and similarities between your hometown and Vancouver BC.
- Entry #4: Describe your feelings before your event. Are you nervous, confident, excited, etc? Explain.
- Entry #5: Describe your feelings after your event. How did you do? How did you feel about your performance? Etc.
- Entry #6: Reflect on the medal ceremony for your event. Did you win? What medal? How did you feel when they played the winner's country's national anthem? Etc.
- Entry #7: Describe what it was like to watch a friend perform in their event. How did they do? Etc. (This can be any event in the Winter Olympics, other than your character's.)
- Entry #8: Spend a day away from the Olympic events. Describe a day of sightseeing in Vancouver BC. What did you do? Explain.
- Entry #9: Reflect on the closing ceremony. Summarize your experience at the 2010 Winter Olympics.
- Entry #10: Write this entry on the flight back to your country. What does your involvement with the 2010 Winter Olympics mean to your country? Are you bringing a medal home? How will you be treated? Etc.
