All billing disputes that cannot be settled by discussion between Customer and the PTA shall be settled according to the dispute resolution process specified by the payment card issuer in the credit or debit card agreement to which you, Customer, are a party. The PTA also reserves the right to require you to re-certify this Agreement to us at any time upon our written request.
- 8) The PTA will not disclose any details of your Agreement to any person or corporation unless required to do so by law or unless the information is required in relation to a disputed transaction. Where the PTA is required to disclose details of your Agreement either by law or in relation to a disputed transaction, the PTA will comply with any relevant privacy legislation.
- 9) The PTA may amend or modify the Terms or Conditions of this Agreement at any time with reasonable prior notice of such amendments or modifications to you, which notice shall be communicated to you in the same manner that notices and other information are communicated with you relating to the PTA. If any part of this Agreement is found to be void, unenforceable or invalid, it shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement. The PTA's failure to enforce Customer's strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of the PTA's right to subsequently enforce such provision or any other provision of this Agreement, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of enforcement that or any other provision.
- 10) This Agreement is personal to Customer, meaning that Customer may not assign your rights or obligations hereunder, by operation of law or otherwise and no third party is a valid assignee of your rights under this Agreement. You represent that you, Customer, the individual signing this Agreement, are over the age of eighteen (18) and have authority to bind yourself hereunder for the authorization of payment by credit or debit card as described herein.
