

Sketch 2 invertebrates that you observe. Label what you can and try to ID the specimen...

Invertebrate 1

Invertebrate 2

Check out the Tullgren funnels with one of your instructors...learn how to use them and how they work.

Collect leaf litter or moss from the garden (a small amount!) so that we can use the funnels to begin to determine the invertebrate populations in the water garden...!