

Mr. Adam

agaede@pps.net

Friday, February 17th, 2012
Day 97, AM (Week 21)

compel: (v.) to force or pressure one to do something

Ex: The student's mischievous behavior throughout the assembly compelled the principal to send her to the office.

What are some synonyms for compel?

What is your sentence (positive OR negative compelling)?

Many hands make light work.
- English proverb

History: 1st

Day 3 for the Zhou Dynasty Rap project class work time!

Reading: 2nd / 5th

Students were guided in juxtaposition note taking during a read aloud of The Egyptian Cinderella by Shirley Climo.

Writing: 3rd / 7th

Students participated in an activity guiding them through a clearer understanding of simple sentences (subject + verb) that will turn into a game called Simple Sentence Smackdown. Students knowledge of independent clauses and simple sentences will be used to learn how to craft more complex sentences (i.e. compound sentences with coordinating conjunctions).